

Australia Awards

Australia Awards Short Course

Promoting Integrity, Transparency and Leadership in the Public Sector

Australia Awards in Indonesia is seeking applications for a short course on Promoting Integrity, Transparency and Leadership in the Public Sector. The course aims to improve integrity, transparency and leadership in the public sector, especially in the justice and civil service sectors. The course supports the GoI's commitments to implement political, legal, and bureaucratic reform and prevent and eradicate corruption. The course will bring participants to meet leading experts in the sector.

The course includes a two-week course in Australia and two workshops in Indonesia. It is offered to 25 participants and is targeted at National and Subnational Government institutions, academia, research institutes, civil society organisations, non-government sectors, and other relevant agencies or organisations.

Participant requirements:

- Preferably S1 level qualification or higher with a minimum of 5 years of relevant experience
- Up to the Echelon 3 level of the government
- Specialists/managers/directors from non-government sectors
- Representatives of the following institutions:
  - Political party members
  - House of Representatives expert staff members/advisers (national and subnational)
  - Secretariat General of the House of Representatives
  - Bappenas
  - National Commission for Corruption Eradication
  - Supreme Court
  - Attorney General's Office
  - Judicial Commission
  - Indonesian National Police
  - Ministry of Law
  - Ministry of Human Rights
  - Ministry of Finance
  - Ombudsman
  - Financial Audit Board
  - Ministry of State Apparatus and Bureaucratic Reform
  - Sub-national governments
  - Academia
  - Civil society organisations
  - Research Institutes
  - Other relevant agencies or organisations
- Endorsed by the supervisor
- Committed to prepare and implement an Award Project, an individual or small group development project as part of the course
- Indonesian nationality and hold an ID card (KTP)
- pass all eligibility check

Women from disadvantaged backgrounds and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply!

All applications MUST be submitted online via this link
<https://www.australiaawardsindonesia.org/id/ApplicationPromotingIntegrity> by Monday, 19 May 2025 at 23:59 WIB at the latest!

Australia Awards

Australia Awards Short Course

Promoting Integrity, Transparency and Leadership in the Public Sector

Key dates

- Pre-course workshop in Indonesia: July 2025 (TBC)
- 2 weeks in-Australia course: Late August - early September 2025 (TBC)
- Post-course workshop in Indonesia: December 2025 (TBC)

Learning objectives

The course will focus on the following learning objectives (the course will help participants to):

- support Gol's public sector integrity reform efforts by sharing and benchmarking Australian strategies in areas such as transparency, accountability and preventing/eradicating corruption
- enhance leadership skills necessary to address challenges in implementing these reforms and effecting positive change in their organisation more broadly
- analyse the role of different stakeholders in promoting integrity, transparency and leadership in the public sector (including the role of parliaments, the civil service, the media and others in the private sector)
- explore how Australia's public sector supports effective collaboration between these government and non-government stakeholders
- learn about international best practices on improving integrity, transparency and leadership in the public sector (e.g. through standards, policy and regulations, fostering dialogue, access to information)
- understand tensions between individual rights and public interest in corruption cases
- develop tools needed to identify and develop innovative approaches to building public sector integrity (including through digital platforms and IT-driven initiatives) and enhancing citizen engagement (including measuring, monitoring and evaluating the impact on public service delivery)
- develop networks between individuals and organisations in Indonesia and Australia to further enhance collaboration and sharing of ideas and innovations
- share experiences on lessons learned and leadership best practices for a better understanding of the challenges faced in different organisations/countries

This is a fully funded short course. Australia Awards in Indonesia will cover course fees, mobilisation costs, return airfares (domestic and international), insurance in Australia (OSHC), accommodation (in Indonesia and Australia), per diem, transport allowance, and visa.

Applicants currently holding a scholarship funded by the Australian Government are not eligible to apply for the short course.

Applicants are expected to have professional working proficiency in English. The applicants' English language competency is part of the selection process. The course will be delivered in English.

An information session will be held virtually by Australia Awards in Indonesia on 6 May 2025 at 10:00 WIB. This session aims to guide applicants on the application procedures, including the online application system, selection scheme and interview process. RSVP before 5 May 2025 at 11:00 WIB via this link

<https://www.australiaawardsindonesia.org/id/PromotingIntegrityInfoSession>

For more information, please visit www.australiaawardsindonesia.org or contact shortcourse@australiaawardsindonesia.org.