

The participants of the Climate Finance Short Course, creating networks between participants and Australian experts and organisations.

The Climate Finance explores the importance of climate finance to support Indonesia's green economy transition and compares the latest policies and initiatives to marshal and attract climate finance from different innovative funding sources to support Indonesia's climate and development objectives. The course also aims to strengthen the partnership between Indonesia and Australia by sharing case studies on navigating the path to net zero under the Australia-Indonesia Joint Statement on Cooperation on the Green Economy and Energy Transition.

Participants were joined by Course Leader Dr Rob Hales and Co-Leaders & Co-Designers Dr Johanna Nalau, Dr Emma Aisbett and Ms Moekti Handajani (Kuki) Soejachmoen as well as guests and speakers in the Climate Finance sector, enabling cross country linkages between Australia and Indonesia through the course.
