Impact of Studies
Long Term Awards (LTA) Alumni
2020 Survey

Employment Situation
Of all respondents:
- 94% were employed
- 72% at government institutions
- 28% at private institutions or NGOs
- 44% held an executive or managerial position

Contribution of Skills, Knowledge and Networks in the Workplace
Of employed respondents:
- 94% viewed course content in Australia as relevant to their current job
- 85% applied their skills and knowledge frequently
- 80% introduced improvements to their organisations
- 64% both men and women reported applying their technical skills and knowledge frequently
- 75% both men and women introduced improvements to their organisations
- 39% were equally likely to introduce improvements to their organisations
- 15% work in social inclusion related areas
- 36% gender
- 15% disability inclusion

The most common type of changes introduced to their organisations:
- 75% improving general knowledge
- 39% improving program/project/service
- 64% transfer technical knowledge
- 75% transfer general knowledge

Among employed respondents:
- 61% obtained higher managerial positions
- 54% obtained higher salary
- Men are twice as likely as women to report influence over key organisational decisions

Source: Australia Awards LTA Annual Survey 2020 - Alumni cohorts returning in 2014 and 2017
Sample size: 129 alumni (52% women) 95% confidence level and 8% error
Impact of Studies
Long Term Awards (LTA) Alumni
2020 Survey

Mutually Advantageous Partnership
Between Australia - Indonesia

Of all respondents:

- 69% maintained contact with Australian individuals
- 54% maintained contact with Australian organisations
- 98% were regularly in contact with fellow Australia Awards Scholarships alumni from Indonesia

Of alumni whose organisations had professional links with Australia:

- 90% viewed these links as mutually beneficial
- 56% involved in maintaining these links

View of Australia

- 98% stated participating in LTA has enhanced their view of Australia
- 98% viewed Australia as having world-class technical expertise related to their respective technical fields
- 97% viewed Indonesia as having a strong and positive relationship with Australia

Alumni Relation Activities

Over the year prior to the survey:

- 77% participated in alumni activities and accessed support services provided by Australia Awards in Indonesia (AAI) and Australian Embassy

Three most popular alumni activities:

- 41% social networking activities
- 29% annual networking events

In the month prior to the survey, respondents provided advice on the following topics related to Australia:

- 97% study and scholarship
- 94% travel and tourism
- 59% research and technology

Source: Australia Awards LTA Annual Survey 2020 - Alumni cohorts returning in 2014 and 2017
Sample size: 129 alumni (52% women) 95% confidence level and 8% error