

Australia Awards

Impact of Studies

Short Term Awards (STA) Alumni

2020 Survey

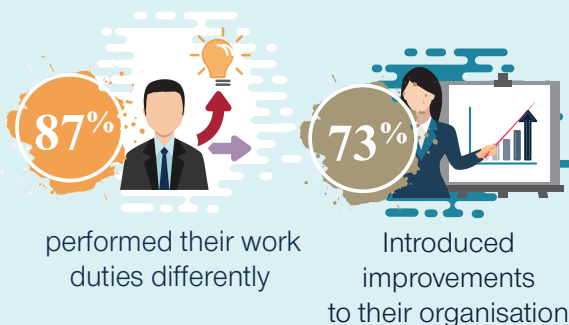

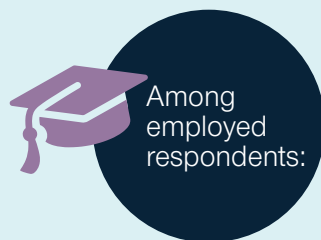

Employment Situation

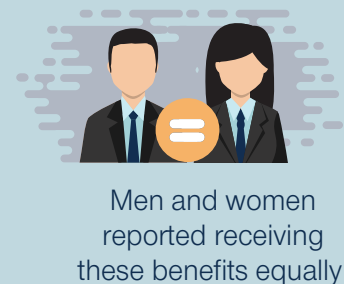

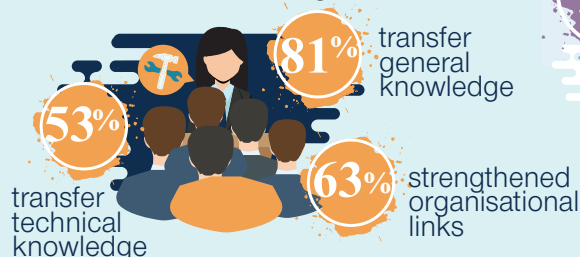

Of all respondents:

Contribution of Skills, Knowledge and Network

The most common type of changes introduced to their organisations:

Source: Australia Awards STA Annual Survey 2020 - Alumni cohorts participating in STA from November 2018 - August 2019
Sample size: 173 alumni (57% women) 95% confidence level and 5% error

Australia Awards

Impact of Studies

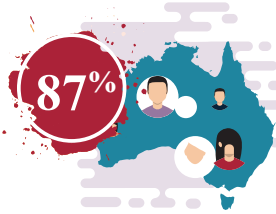

Short Term Awards (STA) Alumni

2020 Survey

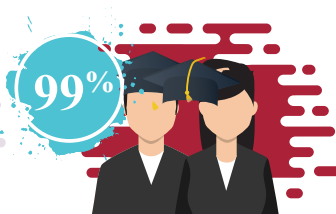

Mutually Advantageous Partnership Between Australia - Indonesia

Of all respondents:

maintained contact with Australian
individuals

with fellow alumni

Of alumni whose organisations had professional links with Australia,

viewed these links as mutually beneficial and

involved in maintaining these links

View of Australia

stated participating in STA has enhanced their view of Australia viewed Australia as having world-class technical expertise related to their respective technical fields viewed Indonesia as having a strong and positive relationship with Australia

Alumni Relation Activities

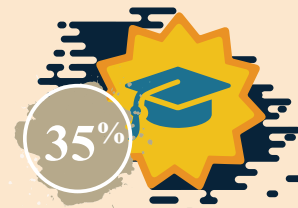

Two most favourite alumni events:

participated in Australia Awards in Indonesia (AAI) and Australian Embassy alumni activities social networking activities and

study and scholarship promotion

Top 3 results after attending alumni events:

expanding professional network

shared further information about AAI and the Australian Embassy

increased technical subject matter skills

In the month prior to the survey, respondents provided advice on the following topics related to Australia:

research
and technology

study and scholarship

travel and tourism

